

in a scaffold, and forcing my unhappy companions to abjure their religion, or accept the same alternative.

No friends to the Turkish Government would spring up from my blood shed by her broken faith but many deadly foes. My lord, your heart still I am sure excuse my having called your attention to our unhappy fate, since it has now assumed political importance. Abandoned in this un-social land by the whole world, even the first duties of humanity give us no promise of protection, unless my lord, you and your generous nation come forward to protect us.

What steps it would be expedient that you should take, what we have a right to expect from the well known generosity of England, it would be hardly fitting for me to enter on. I place my own and my companions' fate in your hands, my lord, and in the name of humanity throw myself under the protection of England.

Time presses—our doom may in a few days be sealed. Allow me to make an humble personal request. I am a man, my lord, prepared to face the worst; and I can die with a free look at Heaven, as I have lived. But I am also, my lord, a husband, son, and father; my poor, true-hearted wife, my children, and my noble old mother are wandering about Hungary. They will probably soon fall into the hands of those Austrians who delight in torturing even feeble women, and with whom the innocence of childhood is no protection against persecutions. I conjure your Excellency, in the name of the Most High, put a stop to these cruelties by your powerful mediations, and especially to accord to my wife and children an asylum on the soil of the generous English people.

As to my poor—my beloved and noble country—must she, too, perish forever? Shall she, unaided, abandoned to her fate, and unavenged, be doomed to annihilation by her tyrants? Will England once her hope, not become her consolation?

The political considerations respecting England herself, and chiefly the maintenance of the Ottoman Empire, are too intimately bound up with the existence of Hungary for me to lose all hope. My lord, may God the Almighty for many years shield you, that you may long protect the unfortunate, and live to be the guardian of the rights of freedom and humanity. I subscribe myself with the most perfect respect and esteem. [Signed] L. KOSUTH.

SPLENDID ENGRAVING.

THE subscribers are now publishing an elegant engraving of the Death of the Rev. John Wesley, Engraved in the highest style of the Art by JOHN SARTAIN, Esq., after the celebrated Painting of Marshall Claxton.

Among the many good men who have spent their lives in the services of their Divine Master, few ever exerted a greater influence for good than did JOHN WESLEY. With high powers of intellect he united a gentleness of disposition which enabled him, at the same time that he touched the tender chords of the human heart, to convince the understanding of the truth and the importance of the holy precepts of the Gospel which he promulgated. And when he took into consideration that his manly labors of usefulness extended to a period of more than half a century—that during the whole of this long period an unvarying course of rectitude was manifested in his walk and conversation—we cease to wonder at the very high degree of estimation in which his memory is cherished, not only by the members of the denomination to the upbuilding of which his untiring energy and exemplary piety so much contributed, but by the truly pious of every sect.

The death of Wesley, was perfectly consonant with the even rectitude of his protracted life, and adds another to the many proofs that "the end of the good man is peace." The closing scene of the life of this venerable man is the one Mr. Claxton has so happily chosen as the subject of his beautiful painting—a faithful copy of which, engraved in an elegant manner, we have thought would be a memento which thousands would wish to have framed and hung in their parlors. In order to enable such as desire to do this to gratify their desires, Mr. Sartain, who stands at the head of his profession in the United States, has been engaged to engrave this elegant picture in his best style, and, relying upon an extensive patronage, the price has been put so low that none who desire it need be without it.

The engraving is of a large size suitable for a parlor, and will be printed on the best quality of heavy plate paper, in a very superior manner, each impression preserving all the beauties of a first class proof, and will be furnished at the following unusually low prices:—1 copy, $2.50; 3 copies, $5.00; 7 copies, $12.00; 13 copies, $20.00; 20 copies for thirty dollars! So that members of congregations and others by joining together and forming clubs can obtain this most impressive picture at one dollar and a half a copy!

Surrounding the bed of the dying patriarch are thirteen figures, representing the following persons (of many of whom accurate portraits are given from originals of great rarity):

Agents, for the sale of this fine work of art are wanted in every part of the United States. For further particulars address CLAUDING & HIGGINS, Publishers, Methodist Book Store, No. 40 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia. This elegant Engraving will be furnished, wholesale and retail, by the Methodist Book Establishment, 200 Malberry St. New York, and by their Agents throughout the United States.

The purchasers of this Engraving, will please bear in mind that this plate has been engraved by Mr. Sartain expressly for this edition and that the impressions will, therefore, be all of the first order, and not such as are taken from second hand English plates. November 3, 1849.

Foreign News.

New York, Nov. 11—2 P. M. The steamer Cambria, Capt. Leitch, with about 80 passengers, bringing Paris dates to the 25th and Liverpool dates to 27th, arrived at Halifax at five o'clock, P. M. Thursday.

England.—The Hon. Abbot Lawrence, the American Minister, had an audience of her Majesty at Windsor Castle, on Saturday last, to deliver his credentials.

The general tone of business affairs during the past week have been of a healthy character.

The European Times says that the fears which were entertained that a general war would spring out of the demand which the Czar made upon the Sultan relative to the extradition, or rather giving up the refugees at Widdin, have been quieted by intelligence which has come to hand. The attitude assumed by this country and France placed the Emperor on the horns of a dilemma. He had no alternative but to lower his tone or have his sabre. He must either fight the English bull dog and Gallic cock, or he must cease to bully the Turk. He has preferred the more pacific course.

Ireland.—Nothing of interest transpired in this distracted and down-trodden country. The difficulties between land lords and tenants, with murders and assassinations, continue.

France.—In the National Assembly, the leading features of the week's debate, was the adjourned discussion on national credit, connected with the cost of the Roman intervention, which had been adjourned over.

In the course of the remarks made by de Tocqueville, he expressed the hope that the amnesty would be granted. He said he believed that Pius, the great Pontiff who had given the signal of every liberty, and the leader of all liberal ideas, had been repaid by violence and murder. These last expressions called forth denials, and M. Tuleu rose up and cried aloud "a lie," and amid great commotion the Assembly adjourned. The difficulty was afterwards settled, and the sittings resumed.

Seventeen of the June insurgents have been tried at Versailles, and have been acquitted.

The Cholera has entirely ceased.

Reports from Paris received on the 25th state, that the French Ambassador at St. Petersburg has forwarded dispatches to his government indicating a change in the hostile determination of Russia in its disagreement with Turkey, upon the subject of the extradition of the Hungarian refugees. So far from pushing matters to extremes Russia expresses itself anxious to settle difficulties quietly provided no warlike interference was threatened on the part of England. The same rumor was prevalent at Vienna on the 21st.

Turkey.—A letter from Malta states that there is no doubt but that the English fleet has left the Adriatic for the Dardanelles. The Austrian fleet is under sail for the Dardanelles.

At Schantzol there was a Russian fleet of 26 vessels, only four hours sail from the mouth of the Bosphorus. The Turkish fleet was anchored across the Bosphorus at the narrowest parts to defend the passage.

The Turkish army at Wallachia had been ordered back to Constantinople. The French fleet, consisting of six vessels of the line, two frigates, and steamers, with 8,000 men and 600 guns, is under weigh for the Dardanelles.

The Deutsche Zeitung has letters from Constantinople to the 8th inst. announcing the arrival in the Bosphorus, of the British fleet of observation.

A salute of 20 guns was fired by the Turkish fleet in honor of the British fleet. Rome.—A letter from Rome dated on the 14th, says that much excitement prevails in the city. Several young men were arrested for singing the Marseilles hymn in the street, and instead of singing the people now indulge in prose recitations.

Pacardie with enormous letters, with "Death to inhuman Priests"—"Death to the red Triumvirates," cover the walls of Rome.

Several attempts on the lives of French officers have been made.

A letter from Vienna to the 7th, says that Venice will not become a free port again. The capital of the kingdom will hence forward be at Verona.

Naples and Sicily.—At Naples and Sicily the violence of the Government continued. It was reported that a regicide association had been discovered, in which are implicated about 20,000 persons.

A copy of Lord Palmerston's dispatch on Sicilian question, has been sent to the Emperor of Russia, who sent a courier to Naples, recommending the king not to give way, assuring him that Russia and Austria would support him under any circumstances. The Government papers were filled with abuse of England and against Lord Palmerston.

Hungary and Austria.—The Emperor has granted the officers of the garrison of Peterwardein, who surrendered unconditionally, the same privilege which the Emperor of Russia accorded the garrison of Comorn.

A courier arrived at Pesth from Vienna, with orders to stop the butchers in that city.

The organization of the Austrian army is going on with great activity. Gen. Dembinski's sister and brother-in-law were arrested at Cracow on the 17th. They had never interfered in politics.

It is said that General Haynau has resigned his post in consequence of the Emperor having ordered him to cease his blood-thirsty work. He complained bitterly of his authority being disregarded by those who presumed to shoot Count Bathany, having been his express orders that he should be hanged.

The latest accounts from Pesth state that arrests were still the orders of the day.

It is said by the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald that the Cabinet has resolved to resist the pretensions of England to the Masquito country, even to the extent of war. The letter writers know nothing about the intentions of the Cabinet one way or another.

There were six inches of snow on Tuesday, on the mountains between Wheeling and Cumberland.

THE CHRONICLE.

Lewisburg, Pa.

Wednesday Afternoon, Nov. 14

See New Advertisements.

The County Advertisements take up so much room that we can give them but one or two insertions until we get smaller type.

READING-ROOM.

We are requested to call a meeting of all persons who wish to have established a Reading-Room in Lewisburg, at the room under Dr. Stewart's office, on Thursday evening, Nov. 15. We second this effort for the public good, and hope enough may assemble to devise a feasible plan. It will require but a small sum, when divided among many, and its convenience, economy, and beneficial tendency on the community and especially upon the young, we believe can be established by trial. Those interested, will not forget to attend.

Launched.

Taking advantage of the high water in the river yesterday, TEN of those large class boats just finished by Messrs. FAIRBANK & STILES of this place, were started for New York, amid the hearty cheers of the laborers who had so long toiled to create those excellent specimens of workmanship. We wish them a safe and speedy arrival at their distant port of destination, and a like return of the proceeds.

Business-Men's Almanac for 1850

Is issued by V. R. PALMER from the Tribune Buildings, New York, at 124 cts. $1 per doz., $7 per hundred. It is emphatically a Business Man's work. We know not where the same amount of information can be obtained in so small a compass.

WEATHER—glorious. And now is the time to improve it by getting every thing ready for the mud and cold to come.

Free Soil unanimously ordained in California!

The Alta Californian of the 1st of Oct. gives the following account of the proceedings of the convention, in session at Monterey, for the formation of a State constitution and bill of rights.

This body, up to our latest dates, had been in session a little over three weeks. Most of the provisions of the proposed Constitution had been acted and passed upon in committee of the whole.

The bill of rights, as adopted in committee of the whole, embraces twenty sections, of the usual character of such provisions. The only point upon which it was supposed a controversy would arise—the question of slavery—passed without debate, and unanimously, utterly prohibiting slavery. Some few were in favor of submitting the matter to the people for a separate vote; but it was not contended for with any show of animosity, and was voted down almost unanimously.

The suffrage question was the source of considerable debate; but was finally disposed of by admitting all white citizens of the United States six months residence in California, and twenty-one years of age. (Indians, Africans, and the descendants of Africans excepted, to the privileges of election.)

[The Constitution as far as adopted conforms very closely to those last adopted in the several States. It prohibits banking and lotteries, and all members of general corporations are to be individually liable for their debts. The introduction of free negroes or of slaves for emancipation, is prohibited.]

N. York, Nov. 11, 9 o'clock P. M.

The steamer Empire City, arrived here this afternoon with intelligence from San Francisco to September the 1st, being thirty days later (but the same as those received by the Falcon at New Orleans.) She brings the mails and half million dollars worth of gold dust.

She brings the interesting and important intelligence for Baltimore city of the arrival of no less than six vessels from that port at San Francisco.

The Detroit Daily Advertiser of the 4th instant states, that the steambot Nide, on her late trip up the lake, lost seventeen of her passengers by cholera. The disease was still prevailing in Mackinaw, and a few deaths were occurring daily.

The Supreme Court of New Jersey has decided that engineers on railroads are not responsible for the loss or injury of cattle, that may come in contact with the locomotive, as it is the duty of the owners to take care of their property.

Steam on the Susquehanna.—The steambot Tunkhannock is making daily trips between Tunkhannock and Pittston, and the enterprise is proving highly successful.

An effort is making for the secession to Maryland of that portion of the District of Columbia which formerly belonged to her.

Pine Apples have been successfully cultivated the present season, in Atakapas district, Louisiana.

Michael Dime has been appointed Treasurer of the Mint at New Orleans, vice Mr. Keal declined.

Election News.

THE State Offices in New York are probably divided between the Whigs and Democrats by the vote of the Anti-Monopoly who voted for some on both tickets.

New York City went Whig by 2,000.

Barry, Dem., is elected Governor of Michigan by 3 or 4,000 majority. Senate Democratic—House uncertain.

Mississippi.—Gen. J. A. Quitman, Dem., is elected Governor by a large majority, and the Democrats gain a Congressman in the room of Patrick Tompkins.

New Orleans, Nov. 12.

Gen. George Walker, the Democratic candidate for Governor of this State, has been elected. It is believed that the Congressional delegation will stand as before. The election passed off quietly.

Wheeling, Va., Nov. 12.

Col. T. S. Haywood, Whig, has been elected to Congress from this district. This is a Whig gain.

The Louisville Journal of Monday states that Hugh Smith has been elected delegate to Congress from New Mexico.

New Jersey.

Both branches of the new Legislature are Whig, though the Whigs lost several members of each by the Anti-Monopoly and other local issues. There is, we believe, an Anti-Monopoly majority chosen, and a charter for a new Railroad across the State will be granted—subject, of course, to the judgment of the Courts as to its legality.

Boston, Nov. 13.

The city of Boston has given about 2240 majority for the Whigs. The returns indicate that George N. Briggs, the Whig candidate for Governor, is elected by the people. The coalition party have probably elected their Senators in Middlesex, Worcester, and Plymouth. In Norfolk and Essex the contest is doubtful.

The House is largely Whig. In the fourth Congressional District Hon. John G. Palfrey is defeated by a larger majority than before. The vote for Phillips (coalition) will be 10,000 less than last year. Boutwell's vote has been increased.

New York, Nov. 12

The prospects for the Whigs in this State is this morning decidedly better. It is now conceded on all hands that the Senate in Whig, the only question being whether the majority is four or two. The Assembly, too, is probably Whig, though there is a probability that it may be equally divided between the two parties.

The news from California has created quite a stir, and will add largely to the stream of emigration from all our principal cities. About fifty young men bound to California, came to this city by the Eastern boats, on Saturday night. The steamer Empire City and Ohio, are both to leave this port to-morrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Intelligence from Oregon, received by the Empire City, states that the overland emigrants report 1500 deaths on the route from Cholera, and that 800 wagons have been left. The Oregon Spectator is to be revived.

Fears are entertained that the French disagreement at Washington is not ended yet.

The Susquehanna County Bank.

We learn from Montrose that the failure of the Susquehanna County Bank has caused the greatest excitement in that community. The committee of Directors appointed to investigate the affairs of the Institution, report that the Bank has at least $200,000 afloat, of which probably $150,000 has recently been put in circulation at the West, through a certain agent in Cincinnati, who was in Montrose but a week before the institution exploded. The Cashier, T. P. St. John, has been arrested in default of $10,000 bail. He had assured the directors that there were but $49,000 in circulation, and that every dollar could be redeemed. So infuriated were the citizens that they attempted to do violence to his person, and after his incarceration, they took the signs from the bank, and placed them with an effigy over the jail door.

Canada.

The Grand Master of the Orangemen at Bytown has come out with an address to the members of all British North American, peremptorily denouncing annexation as utterly disloyal and revolutionary, threatening disaster and danger to the country, and menacing the peace and safety of the people. It is said that Quebec is scarcely behind Montreal in pressing the question of annexation to the United States. A manifesto in favor of the project is now in circulation in Quebec, with 700 names attached, of men mostly in high standing in that city, of both English and French origin.

Quincy, (Ill.) Nov. 6.

Last night about fifty negroes, of all ages and sexes, with tea-s, stamped from the Missouri side of the river. The slave were owned by Miss Miller, Mr. McKinn and Mr. McCutcheon, of Sugar Creek, and Mr. Ellis, of Monticello, Lewis county. The slaves were overhauled on Saturday morning, and after a desperate resistance and the loss of their leader, they were captured. The slave who was killed belonged to Miss Miller.

Philadelphia, Thursday, Nov. 8.

Hon. Henry Clay arrived in this city this afternoon at 3 o'clock, from Baltimore, and was heartily welcomed by his many friends and admirers. Col. Swift, Albert R. Schofield, Esq. and Henry White, Esq. met the Baltimore cars at Gray's Ferry, and brought Mr. C. to Mr. Richard Bayard's private residence in Walnut-st. below Eleventh, where he is now staying. Mr. Clay has made this visit to our city in order to attend the wedding of Mr. Bayard's daughter which takes place this evening.

Henry Petriken, Esq., of Harrisburg, died this morning at the Merchants' Hotel in this city, aged 52 years. Mr. Petriken had been for many years an active politician.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

THE New York Sun says "Brandreth's Pills have been used among many of our friends, and in our own family we have used them nearly four years, when we required any medicine. In that period, no Doctor save Dr. Brandreth has crossed our threshold, and no medicine beside the Dr's Pills used. Our belief is, 'Keep your bowels and blood pure,' and every kind of disease will be prevented or cured. The Brandreth Pills are eminently calculated to do this, and thereby much lessen the sum of human misery."
